THANK YOU

Thank you from the bottom of our glittering hearts! Your generous support has made this year's celebration truly fabulous. A special shout-out to E&S Mechanical for making our dreams come true by financing the print of our dazzling full-colour program. And to the incredibly talented Heather Kotyk, your time and creativity in designing the program have added that extra sparkle we all adore.

With your help, Coronation 49 is a shimmering success!

REIGN 48
2023-2024

Welcome guests one and all to Coronation 49!

We gather here tonight to celebrate the accomplishments of the 48th House Under Millicent, and there are many. Tilda and Gabe and their team continued to build on the successes of previous reigns while staying true to their vision for expanding AFAB and trans representation in their shows and events.

All of us here know that no reign is ever, in the end, what was pictured before it began. This reign was no different. Storms were indeed weathered, but weathered they were, and here we are now, to celebrate the tenacity, the dedication, the resilience, and the success of this team. They not only survived, they thrived.

Please, enjoy tonight. As we near our fiftieth year, we have so many things to be grateful for, so many things to be proud of. Being here with all of you is one of the chief sources of gratitude and pride.

Thank you for being here.

MESSAGE FROM THE COLLEGE PRESIDENT

It's been quite the year for Reign 48!

A strong focus on raising money for charity carried this reign through its many challenges. Through events like the crowd favourite baseball game, Rocky Horror production show, and Campio brunches, a good chunk of change was raised for their chosen charities, and student bursaries. Much travelling to other courts, particularly to places the ISCWR has not historically been, has raised the visibility level of the ISCWR both on a Canadian and United States level. Congratulations to Reign 48 for sticking with it, despite all of the challenges that came your way, and keeping the focus on the charities. With the current political situation where it is becoming more and more difficult for 2SLGBTQIA++ organizations to access funding to support the communities they serve, and to have visible support for their existence, Reign 48 has kept its head in the game to ensure the ISCWR continues its long tradition of assisting that 2SLGBTQIA++ organizations and individuals are consistently visible and our issues and concerns are discussed. In other words, we will continue to survive no matter what the other side of things throws at us!

To the incoming monarchs, whomever they may be, thank you for choosing this time to run for Monarch in an ever changing world, where it is, unfortunately, once again, not entirely safe to do so. Thank you for choosing to uphold the things the ISCWR stands for, and supporting 2SLGBTQIA++ communities and individuals directly, through visibility, support, and heart. Thank you for remembering, now more than ever, that what we do is not about us but for the people and communities who need support. On behalf of the college of Monarchs, I wish you all the best in the coming year!

I remain,

MESSAGE FROM THE EMPRESX

Thank you to everyone who has come out tonight for Coronation 49! It means the world to see everyone, whether you came from across the country or are local to Edmonton, who has joined us tonight to celebrate Reign 48.

I don't think I ever fully processed how I ended up here. When I began my work with the court in 2021, the goal was not to be Empresx, at least not so soon. My plan was to just help an organization I loved, and create more space for AFAB performers within it. I was happy to do that with any title, and maybe someday I'd be "ready" to be a Monarch. It was a shock to me when people told me I was actually ready now, but deep down I knew that if I wanted to see change and more representation (both of the groups I belonged to and the drag scene as a whole,) I needed to help be it in this capacity. Whether I was truly ready or not, becoming the first elected Empresx in the ISCWR's history was lifechanging. Seeing not only the number of performers who donated their time (by my count we booked over 150 performers this reign), but also the approvals of the Code of Conduct and more inclusive protocols (alongside the amount of money we raised for our charities) truly gave me hope when I felt defeated. I could not be prouder of our team, and despite the difficulties that came with it, I wouldn't trade this reign for any other experience.

This year would never have survived without our board. I cannot thank everyone enough for their service this year. Thank you in particular to Cody for truly being a pillar throughout this reign, Charlemagne, Wanda, and Stretch, for stepping up as brand new board members and doing amazing work, Tequila, for stepping into multiple roles throughout this reign with ease, Tanner, for letting me bug him half of the time and being a great guy, and Rob, for anchoring this reign when we needed it most. You all truly did such amazing work this year, thank you all.

Regina: Thank you to Juicy for greeting us in true Saskatchewan fashion by yelling "hookers!" at us when we arrived. Sabrina, it was lovely connecting with you this year, I really need to come visit you in Medicine Hat soon. Kim, Quinten, and Lola, you all represent Regina so well, and it was incredible reigning alongside another amazing AFAB empress.

Vancouver: Karmella and Scotty, your reign was incredibly inspirational, and I'm so glad I was able to join you to celebrate Reign 50-Fun. Papa Bear Kevin and Chantelle, you represent Vancouver so well, and you both had the best step-up speech ("I have waited 5 years for this!") and moniker (Beep Beep!) that I've heard all year. Fancy, you are beyond genuine, and it's always wonderful getting to hear your perspective on this system. Alter, continuing our connection from last year has been so wonderful. Thank you for the phone calls and check ins, I'm so excited to see what the future holds for you.

Calgary: DW, it was truly lovely connecting with you this reign. Coming down to Calgary for Jury Duty was so much fun, and it was wonderful having you as my sister Empress. Tiffany and Jackie, connecting with you over lunch in Regina helped me feel so welcome, you're both incredible. To the 48th Upper House, I wish you all the best this reign!

Cake and Vonda, you both are some of the kindest people I met this reign, thank you for always being so warm to me.

To the cast and crew of Rocky Horror, the queer joy that came from watching this production was out of this world. Tequila and Stretch, without your direction and choreography this show would not have been half as successful, thank you both for your hard work. Every single cast member it their roles perfectly, in particular Passerine, who's performance as Frank truly was star-making. During a fearful time for queer and trans Albertan's, a gender diverse production of a truly punk queer show was exactly what so many of us needed. It truly was the highlight of this reign.

To our titleholders, all of you are such stars, and watching each of you blossom this year has been such a joy. Wheelz and Papi, you pulled off an incredible Hearts Pageant, it was wonderful being your mentor for it and you really need to cohost again soon. Aboy and Audrina, you are such a dynamic duo, and our reign wouldn't have been what it was without you as our Gay's. Charli and Bunny, seeing you both grow so much in this reign, especially with your turns as Brad and Janet, was astonishing. To say I'm grateful to call you both friends and family is an understatement. To our new titleholders, I'm so excited for all of you, and please know I'm always here for if you need any advice.

To our EOY's: Honey, you truly are one of the most magnetic performers in Edmonton. Your talent is only outshined by your kindness, you really are a superstar. Emmonia, we finally made you a Court Ghoul! For real, nobody does it like you here, and I'm so grateful to have had you in our reign. You were one of my first friends in this scene, and I'm so glad to still call you one.

To my supports: Bambi and Ferris, thank you for helping me feel safe in this community since the beginning. You helped introduce me to this crazy system, and I'm forever grateful for it. Judy, you bitch. I'm so glad to have you as both my drag child and my friend, and I cannot wait to see the places you'll go. Hermena, I couldn't have gotten through certain points in this reign without you. I'm so happy that you moved here and to have you as a bestie. Georgiie, you truly are a rising star, and this reign would not be what it is without your help. Lisa, our chats over soup helped me more than you know, thank you for always being an ear for me. Colin, despite the toll this reign had on both of us, I hope you know how much I appreciate and care about you. You're a bonita person and friend Colin, and I'm grateful to call myself a part of your family. Pyx, Connecting with you during our time as reigning Emperexes has been a blessing. Having another monarch that I could always lean on without judgment or bias was something I really needed, and I cannot wait to celebrate your reign in a few weeks. Christy, you truly are one of the best people I know. Our conversations helped ground me a lot, and I am so grateful for your guidance this reign. Tosheena, you inspire me to no end. Following in your footsteps as an AFAB monarch was daunting, and I hope I made you proud. Talking with you when I felt like I couldn't handle the weight of this reign anymore means more than you'll ever know. Connor, Karter, and Val, my fave himbo's, having you three come into my life this reign really meant the world to me. Thank you for being such amazing friends. Kelly, the amount of talent, charisma, and intelligence you have inspires me to no end. Here's to more laughs and terrible Cher impressions. Jennie, you really are like a younger sibling to me. You are stronger than you know love, and I will always be here for you if you need absolutely anything. Annie, Ivy, Chris, and Will, thank you for being the best friends a clown could ask for. I know obligations keep getting in the way, but I cannot wait to have more amazing times together soon. Ren, my love, thank you for your care through all of this. While we've only been together a short time, you hold a special place in my heart, and I look forward to what the future holds for us. Finally, a huge thank you to my therapist Jessica for having to put up with my bullshit all reign. You seriously do not get paid enough for having to remember two name's for everyone.

Gigi, while we don't know what our reign could've looked like, I'm so glad that you continued to be a part of reign 48. You handled everything with class (and Newfie sass), and I'm so happy to see you as Ms. International Pride. I wish you nothing but success during your reign, and I'm so grateful to call you my friend.

Natasha, it truly was an honour having you as my Out of Town half. Seeing another Emprex in this province gave me a lot of hope, and causing chaos with you at Regina's ball is still a highlight of this year for me. Thank you for all of the laughs and your kind words this reign (and also for not sleeping in during the OOT show again.)

Mom and Lauren, you both are the most important people in my life. Your endless support of me and my art is something I am so privileged to have, and I couldn't ask for a better family. I love you both so so much.

Gabe Autumn, we may have known each other the least before this, but I am so glad that we bonded this reign. You really have come into your own this year, with Duke It Out being a prime example of what you're capable of. I, and so many others, have seen and appreciate the hard work you put into this reign and your drag, and I will always be here to remind you of your strengths. You're a star Wes, don't ever forget that.

Billie, you truly stepped up to the plate as Princet. Your confidence grew so much this reign as a performer and producer, and seeing you let loose during Paint Swap made me so happy to see. You have so much potential, and I hope you know I will always be cheering you on. P.S I'm sorry for accidentally stabbing you during my Terrifier number.

Indi, I knew the minute I asked you to be my princess that I made the right decision. There's no denying that your passion for what the court does always shines through in your work, and that you were beyond ready for this. You were my right-hand man in so many ways this year, and your friendship truly has changed me for the better. I am so grateful to call you my Princess, my roommate, and one of my best friend's.

Gabe, I hope you are proud of what we achieved. We not only got more people involved, we helped change minds about what the court is and can be. We created more space for nonbinary titleholders, and helped remove barriers in regards to monarch titles that made history not just here, but in the ICS as a whole. As much as tonight feels bittersweet, we couldn't have done any of this without each other, and I'm still glad to have gone on this journey together. I wish you nothing but the best Ayrin.

Thank you to everyone who helped make this reign so monumental. Serving and representing the Edmonton drag community in this role was an honour, and while I may have been Edmonton's first elected Emprex, as well as only the third AFAB "queen" to hold this title, I sure as hell know that I will not be the last. I am so grateful to have been a part of this organization, thank you all so much.

MESSAGE FROM THE IMPERIAL CROWN PRINCESS

This reign has had many ups and downs but I am thankful for all of the great experiences along the way!

This year I've been thankful to work on my connections with other courts through visiting three different out of town coronations, Regina, Calgary and Vancouver. I've also been very happy to continue working on growing my connections within the community, and having so many new performers participate in multiple shows and events along the reign.

One of my favourite events this year has been getting to produce a show with one of our current holiday title holders, Mr. Mayor of Whoville, Stretcher Hymen. That show, of course, was Tits, Ass, and a Whole Lot of Sass, featuring an all femme cast, including trans, non-binary, and cis women performers. As an AFAB princess I wanted to represent and put on a show to feature performers from the realm with similar experiences to my own. It was a great success with many fun numbers and an empowering group number at the end.

At the last minute, I stepped into the role of Dr. Scott in our yearly court production, Rocky Horror. It was a fantastic show and time, including a lot of new members in this scene with many trans and non-binary performers. It was a three night success that raised over $5000.

I also got to participate in the ball game for the first time this year, even with a boot on, I didn't let that stop me with the help of Bunny as my runner.

Closing out the reign we had

Face Swap, a fun new event which allowed drag performers to swap paint and drag for the night. Stretcher and I swapped, and getting to be the Grinch for a show was the highlight of the reign for me. I was also very happy to coordinate the bake sale at the Amateur Pageant. Being able to combine my love of baking and drag, and being able to help the community, truly was an unforgettable experience.

I wanted to give a big thank

Indecisive

Imperial Crown Princess

you to a few special people that helped me out through this year and acted as my rock when things got far too challenging, and I needed support. First of all my friend group, Jennie, Kelly, Karter, Conner and my partner Val. They were a fundamental group that supported me along the way at events and behind-the-scenes holding me up when everything was just too difficult. Especially my partner, even though he's only seen the last seven months of the reign, he helped me through some of the harder times and got me to the end. Stoning my gown in his basement is going to be a favourite memory of getting ready for Coronation. Of course, my mom and my family for being there and supporting me, coming to every event that they can and overall just being a fantastic support for me. Not everyone has their biological family in this community so I'm always thankful when they can be there for me, especially my grandparents coming to investiture. That will always be a special moment, that they saw me crowned as princess. Another special shout out to Jennie, my best friend and my little sister, you were especially there for me - you made last minute outfits, you helped me with wigs and were always a shoulder to cry on. And of course, my upper house, my Fem-prex Tilda WorldEnds who has been my rock and my roommate throughout this year. They picked me for their upper house back last year, and while we've been through a lot this year, I know it's only made us stronger as friends and performers. To Gabe Itch, the Emprex, we got to be Gay's together and now to reign together has been very special, you've been a great support and friend this year. Billie, although I may tease you and give you a hard time just know I think you're really amazing and I'm so happy you finally gave me a lace front wig to style! Gabe Autumn, I've seen you grow this entire year and I'm so proud of everything that you've accomplished, especially getting to produce and put together Duke get out. You did a phenomenal job even though I couldn't be there to watch it.

And of course, I'm gonna add a little shameless plug for my wig business, @wigsbyindi

I worked really hard over the years to build up my business and doing commissions now for Queens and Kings across Canada has been very rewarding. That has included some amazing people in the imperial court system like Karmella, Fancy and Vonda from British Columbia, Cake from Winnipeg, and Anita from Saskatchewan! So you can find me on Facebook and Instagram if you would like your very own @wigsbyindi!

Forever I remain,

Monarch

Good evening y'all!

I am excited to be back in Edmonton for another Coronation and can't wait to celebrate 2 monarchs & their house on an amazing, successful and amazing year. Y'all did your community and charities proud this year.

It was lovely getting to know each one of you a little better throughout this reign. I can't wait to grow our friendships more.

Gabe - you are a true rockstar. Your love and compassion have been seen throughout the realms and it has been awe-inspiring to watch you on your path. I'm glad to have gotten to know you more throughout the years!

Tilda - ohhhhhhhh baby doll! You are amazing! You have held your head up high, shown strength compassion and proved the world that you are here and will stop at nothing to accomplish your dreams and goals. It has been a true gift to be your half, and watch/cheer you on throughout this experience. I can't wait to see what you do next.

Reign 48 you all did such an amazing job, and all deserve a red bull and a break! Cherish the memories and the accomplishments y'all have done!

Decade Monarch

I remember as producer of the ball pro-gram, waiting for messages usually from decade or double decade or even triple decade, emperors, and empresses. And now I am one of those.

It's hard to believe that 10 years has passed and my goodness what a lot of changes. Mainly the location. We are now in Nova Scotia. It has been 10 years since we reigned. And nine years since I have done drag. Congratulations to the current Emprixes and their upper house. Being just 10 years out I remember the importance of a strong upper house in a successful year. I have lost touch with so many friends in Edmonton and the Wild Rose Court system. It is an important part of my life. Luckily for Facebook and Instagram and my husband Jeff, we are never really far away.

Decade Monarch

Has it really been ten years? It's so strange – in one sense it seems like yesterday and in another it was a lifetime ago. A lot has happened in the subsequent years and there have been a lot of changes, but in the end the work we did back in Reign 38 and my involvement with the ISCWR remains one of the proudest periods of my life. Most of the folks who were part of those years are still the dearest, closest friends I could ever ask for and even those who may have drifted from my life still hold a special place in my heart! We could never have done it without them. Special shout out to Robin and Brandy who have left us but will always be a part of my life! And of course Lj Steele – you set me on this path. Miss you, my friend.

You know, every now and again a song will come on the radio or on one of my playlists – a song that I performed or was part of at one of the zillion fundraisers we were part of and I have to admit I get a little melancholy remembering all the hard work and most of all FUN we had. We did some good work, and it makes me happy and proud that the work continues!

Both Empress Dayzi and I are still together in real life (that old gay couple Jeff & Brian) and have since moved to the east coast and are living our best lives raising chickens, eating seafood and enjoying retirement!

Huge congrats to Reign 48 and Emprixes Tilda WorldEnds & Gabe Itch and their Upper House! Enjoy your evening!

How can we have reigned twenty years ago when we are only barely twenty ourselves?

It was a short reign, with a regency and a small upper house, but oh! It was a lot of fun! Thanks to Boots and The Roost and Prism for all your support, and to all the folks who were there for us.

We raised money to support Diabetes research, because the charity work is why we did it.

We got out of it what everyone ideally should: feelings of pride and accomplishment, and friendships that lasted a lifetime.

Reign 37 & 47

Thank you one and all for joining us in Edmonton to Celebrate the success of Reign 48. It was a great feeling to watch many of the seeds planted last year turn into even more of a reality under the care of Gabe and Tilda.

This year has been a struggle not only for the reign and our organization but our community as a whole. But once again, through adversity, in a world unravelling around us our little Court has managed to have a very successful year.

Each of us have our individual struggles but each of us also bring a great strength to the group which somehow always culminates in success and celebration.

As reign 49 begins I hope all we have learned this year can guide us to our 50th anniversary with more success and a lot more fun.

MESSAGE FROM THE EMPRES

Good evening, everyone!
Esteemed guests, monarchs, guys, gals, nonbinary pals,
and everyone in between.

Welcome to Coronation 49, Purple Reign Lavender Haze. I am so grateful that you are all here to celebrate Reign 48 with us.

Let me first start off by saying – Holy F*ck! WE DID IT!!! Being a monarch is hard, but worth it!

When I look back over this year, I can't help but think of the past 3 years of my life and how the ISCWR has changed me. This organization gave me something during a time when everyone was lost and looking for something more. I found drag and the ISCWR in December 2020, but it wasn't until February of 2021, I fully fell into this organization. And holy did stumble into a wonderfully beautiful and perfectly dysfunctional family that I am so proud to be a part of.

In the last 3 years I have put together a ton of fundraisers, gone to over 10 coronations, and have learned as much as I could about this world. During this time, I have had magical experiences, I've gotten to meet the most extraordinary and talented people, that I now get to call my friends, and have consistently been blown away by the community within the ICS.

This year I spent so much of this reign comparing being a monarch to what it's like playing sports. The parallels are so similar that for me it made me realize what I had been missing from my life for a long time. In any sport you can never control how the game goes, but you use all the things you've learnt to give yourself the best opportunity to succeed. There are triumphs and losses, countless moments of adversity, and countless moments to overcome it; And in my experience, there is team and family. And what I realized is how valuable having someone or someone's that have had the same shared experience. This year, despite all its ups and downs, will ever take away the good moments. The inside jokes, the travelling, and supporting each other through it. Everyone that is a part of these organizations, especially the monarchs all have the same goals and experiences in one way, shape, or form. With those shared experiences comes support, constantly uplifting each other, and reminding each other why we all decided to do this in the first place. No one wants you to fail. Everyone is here to offer support and help you succeed. Which, after this year, has been something I've cherished so much. When I think back on my years of playing hockey, I don't remember the hockey, I remember the people, and Reign 48 is no different.

Gabe Itch

Emprex XLVIII

This year has been incredibly difficult, not just for the monarchs and upper house, but also for the board, and the Edmonton queer community. The rollercoaster ride of cancelled culture, Alberta government policies, and adapting to new expectations has taken a toll and pushed everyone to a breaking point. Which I think is worth acknowledging because what the ISCWR has endured proves the resilience, dedication, and love our community members have for this organization. Which is incredibly rare to witness and worth celebrating. It takes a village and without the upper house, board, and our constant supporters we would have never gotten this far and had the successful year without everyone's dedication and sacrifice!

So, what did we accomplish this year?

We had the ICS's first reign with two Emprex's. We have had the most AFAB representation in any upper house in the history of the ISCWR. This year is the first time that the number of contestants running for a gender-neutral title exceeded the number of contestants running for a Ms. or Mr. title in all of our pageants. We created the ISCWR reoccurring open stage show First Come First Serve – Shout out to Ace of Hearts Jennie for inspiring this idea! We booked almost 150 different drag performers this year! We had an all-King Show and All Femme identifying show. We found new venues and new unique ways to fundraise money. We reached new distances having the ISCWR represented in Kentucky and between everyone in the upper house, we attended 8 different coronations (I'm counting Alaska!). We set a precedent of backstage etiquette by creating a code of conduct which was spearheaded by Femprex Tilda WorldEnds. We had an INCREDIBLE production of the Rocky Horror Picture show produced by Tequila and Stretcher Hymen and found a new way to produce Turnabout in a gender-inclusive way through Paint Swap. AND raised a boat load of money! I could go on and on and on! There is so much to be proud of this year!

For me, the biggest goal I had for this reign and honestly the last 3 years was to update the ISCWR's bylaws and protocols to be more gender inclusive.

I pushed and challenged the ISCWR for so long, so I could feel seen, so others would feel seen, and so the ISCWR could be a leader in the ICS when it comes to gender diversity, and I can proudly say that in February of Reign 48 the Bylaws and Protocols were updated. For me, experiencing that moment made every discussion, argument, and every bit of frustration that got the ISCWR to this point was worth it!

You know, it's a weird feeling for me as I sit here for the 10th time trying to figure out what to say and being filled with all these emotions. It's not something I am used to but I think it tells a tale of how this year went for me. I am overwhelmed with joy, excitement, sadness, contentment. Joy from what we accomplished, excitement that for the first time all year that the sun is finally poking through the giant storm cloud that has been hovering over this year! The literal light at the end of the tunnel, and don't worry there is also a big gay rainbow. Sadness and contentment, knowing that this chapter of my life, the last 3 years of go, go, go, is finally coming to an end. It almost feels like the ISCWR, and I are "all grown up" which is exciting and a little bit terrifying and the looming feeling of - to quote Emprex Karmella Bar

“Well now what?”

For now I need to say thank you to everyone that supported me this year. I would not have survived this year without the incredible group of people who were just always there. For me this message is the closest thing to a love letter I can offer, dedicated to everyone that helped me throughout this Reign, and to all those who have stuck around year after year for the ISCWR. Ensuring this organizations mission would remain successful to raise funds to directly support Edmonton and Area's 2SLGBTQIA+ community.

To the Board: Rob, you came into this Reign on the brink of collapse, and you helped us rebuild our foundation and supported us until the end! Cody, I cannot thank you enough for being on the ball, all year long. Your tireless effort and mentorship of new board members allowed us to push through every event ensuring its success. Tequila, I know how much you took on this year and I know how much it impacted you, but I love and appreciate all the work you put into this Reign. Tanner, thank you for taking on a board position so late into the reign! Our members at Large, Stretcher and Wanda, thank you for showing up for this organization and leaning into this role and making your voices heard. Chris, thank you for always being a light in any room. Charlemagne, our data analysis and idea person, you always brought and offered a new and unique perspective on how we operate, and always suggested ways in how we can better our operational tactics. You always let your voice be heard! Vanity, between being a board member, a dowager, and my partner. I know this year has been difficult, thank you for endless support. I Love you.

To my Half Empress Fancy Pants and Half Emperor Big Daddy. I cannot thank you both enough for supporting me this year. Both of you were always a phone call and/or a 4-hour Facetime away! You held me up in my moments of weakness and uplifted me higher in my moments of strength. You both consistently reminded me of why I wanted to be a monarch in the first place and proven over and over that I found my perfect mentors. I hope I have made you proud this year! Thank you for everything.

To my upper house, I cannot tell you how proud I am of every single one of you. We overcame EVERY! SINGLE! OBSTACLE! That was thrown in front of us this year!! Remember every memory, the good and the bad ones. I can guarantee no other reign will be like this one. And even though sometimes it was hell, we all got through it together and no one can take that away from us. Every mountain we climbed was a journey that made us into better people. We stepped up for each other when someone needed a break, we supported each other even in moments where it was difficult; Because we believed in this team and came in with the same values. We didn't always see eye to eye, but families fight. It was the love that we had for each other that got us through the year. As we walk away from tonight, remember all that we accomplished. Everyone set individual goals and even goals we unknowingly set for each other at the beginning of the year, and I can proudly say that they were all achieved! And by my definition that is a successful Reign. Thank you for all that you've taught me. I love you all!

Tilda, I hope when you look back on this year, you will be proud of everything we have accomplished. We made truly made a difference.

And lastly to everyone else I have met along the way, Damien and Sacred, Ima Hoot and Wayne, the Weekly Monarch chat Crew, Okimawiw, Jac-o-licious, Vonda Do Point, my Mom and Dad, the Vixens, all of my chosen family, Georgiie, Brooks, Jordyn, Winter, and Chase and everyone else that supported me or checked in on me along the way, I couldn't have done this without you!

Thank you all for such an incredible and wild year,

MESSAGE FROM THE IMPERIAL CROWN PRINCET

Billie Eyelash

Imperial Crown Princet

Reign 48

Well this definitely hasn't been the year that any of us expected, but here we are at the end.

Although we've had to deal with so many hardships, there's still so much for us all to be proud of. Between building more connections in the community, and all of our successful events, we've accomplished so much. I want take a minute to thank some of the people that made this year so special:

Georgiie; You've stepped up in such a big way this year, between volunteering for events (or being volun-told to do 50/50's with Indi) and being there for all of us as a support. I couldn't be more proud of the work you've done, and I'm glad to call you a friend

Blush; I'm so beyond proud to get to call you family. Getting to watch you grow as a performer and a person has been one of the highlights of the year. I know that you're going to do amazing things in the years to come, and cannot wait to see what you accomplish.

Faith; From the very first time I got in drag and performed, to this past year, you have been there for me through everything. They say that most friendships fizzle out after high school, but you're one of the few exceptions. You've been one of my closest friends, someone I can always turn to when I need to talk, and I can never thank you enough for all you do. I love you so much

The Upper House; I'm so endlessly proud of all that we've done as a collective group. The events we planned, all the fun evenings out to take our minds off things, and all the people we've helped. There's so much I could say, but I just want to thank you all for all the hard work you did

Finally, Gabe Itch; From the moment you asked me to be your Princet, I knew I had to work hard to make you proud. You've given me one of the greatest friendships I could have ever asked for, and I know that I wouldn't have gotten through this year without you there. You and Vanity have both shown me so much love, giving me a place to stay on weekends, making sure I eat, and being the best people to get ready for shows with. There aren't enough thank you's in the world to express how grateful I am.

With that, I remain

Dearest Gabe,

Thank you for the honour and privilege to be witness to your journey to the crown. From our first meeting 3 years ago to today, you have shown yourself to be a wonderful young individual with an incredibly bright future, whichever path you take. The courage and dignity which you have displayed during your reign has been . . . inspiring!

With JOY,

Good evening Ladies and Gentleman, Monarchs and Honoured Guests:

Thank you all for joining in our celebration of the 48th Reign.

It has been an honour once again to serve as the In-Town Half Emperor to Emprex 48 Gabe Itch. Thank you for allowing me to help support and guide you towards your goals and vision for your year. I hope I made a difference and gave you the mentorship, guidance and support you needed. Be proud of your accomplishments and achievements. You represented Edmonton with passion and success. Each year is not without its challenges, and you managed them with dignity and grace. I am so proud of you.

And how can I not say thank you to my Out-of-Town Half Empress – Empress 50 of Vancouver Sister Fancy Pants. It is always a pleasure spending time with you.

And so my time as Duke has come to an end. I'm so grateful for the incredible memories I've made while representing the ISCWR this reign. My team got to perform in a fully choreographed show with the Edmonton Musical Theatre, which was such a cool and delightfully silly experience. Calgary Coronation was immaculate. I met so many new people, saw some stellar drag, and who doesn't love an afterparty in a rooftop pool?! Perhaps some of my favourite memories were made at Duke It Out: A Drag King Lip Sync Showdown, an event that was the first of its kind for our organization that I was so overjoyed to get to produce. I'm very proud to have been part of a team that produced so many successful events and introduced countless people to our organization. I'd like to thank each and every one of our board members who served during this reign; long story short, it was a lot of work! And to my team... Indecisive, you were a rockstar this year. Not only did you work incredibly hard and organize such great events, but you stepped up to the plate whenever there was a need for anything. I was especially impressed seeing you fill in last minute for the Production of the Rocky Horror Picture Show. No one could tell that you hadn't been rehearsing for months with the rest of the cast. Billie, you crushed it this reign. You pulled off some impressive events and built up so many relationships between our organization and other groups/communities. Gabe, you have not only been a great mentor to me but a great friend. Thank you for making time to support me in so many ways while you were working tirelessly to fulfill your duties as Emprex. And finally Tilda, my Femprex, the absolute menace who will forever call me Mr. Peanut... one of the things I'm most grateful for this reign was getting to grow closer to you. I am in awe of the work you've done this year. Not only did you work incredibly hard to fulfill your duties, but you have been such a champion for diversity and inclusion within our organization. I am so inspired, and I know many others are too.

We did it Team! What we've accomplished this reign is going to ripple through the organization for years to come. I'm so proud of us.
